GEORGIA BANKERS URGE PARKS WAREHOUSE BILL
Financiers Ask That It Be Substituted for Adams Measure.

Delegations from bankers of Atlanta, Augusta and Savannah appeared before the joint session of the house and senate agricultural committee Thursday afternoon and argued against the favorably recommended Adams measure, which would establish a system of state warehouses for the storage of agricultural products. These bankers asked that the Parks warehouse bill be recommended instead, which would establish a system of state warehouses for the storage of agricultural products. The Adams measure would establish a system of state warehouses for the storage of agricultural products. The Parks measure would establish a system of state warehouses for the storage of agricultural products.

ONE HOUR MORE WORK FOR GEORGIA SOLONS
Following Heated Argument, House Votes to Meet at 9 O'Clock Each Morning.

Following heated argument on the advisability of making the legislators work one hour more a day, the house on Thursday voted to work that one more hour, despite the strong and vociferous protests of Mr. Wohlwend, of Muscogee, and others.

Georgia Exempt From Express Charges
The ruling of the interstate commerce commission, announced yesterday, giving the express companies the right to increase their rates on small packages, will not apply to Georgia. The commerce in Georgia, unless the state railroad commission can be persuaded to approve of the ruling of the federal interstate commerce commission, will not apply to Georgia. The commerce in Georgia, unless the state railroad commission can be persuaded to approve of the ruling of the federal interstate commerce commission, will not apply to Georgia.

"Persons, Pass the Peaches"
The senate committees were just getting under way in the various parts of the upper house yesterday afternoon, when suddenly an unforeseen event, bearing a large crate on his shoulder, allowed his way through a crowd of solons to the president's stand. He was delivered to Senator Owen, who as one legislator put it, "and the flavor George gave him."

Harison for Park's Code
Senator Harison introduced in the senate Thursday a resolution providing for the appointment of a committee to investigate the advisability of installing Park's code as the code of the state of Georgia. The committee, which will be composed of Messrs. Harison, Lawrence and Walker, were named on the committee by the senate.

Cops on the Campus
For a long time students in the state colleges have felt rather well protected from the long arm of the law, but according to a bill introduced in the senate by Senator Owen, the powers will be exercised over the pupils of the fourth district agricultural college located in the city of Carrollton. Under the present law a state officer is the only official who can make an arrest on the grounds of a state college. The sending bill would set aside this privilege in the case of the Carrollton school.

Jones Would Fish for Go.
Captain George D. Rucker, editor of The Atlanta Free Press, came to town Thursday and brought with him an entire staff of correspondents to see how the general assembly was getting along. After observing the house and the senate operate in high gear, Captain Rucker and his scribbles paid their respects to Governor Harris.

Special Judiciary
The house special judiciary committee, Mr. Fowle, of Bibb, chairman, Thursday afternoon recommended that the following local bills do pass: To increase the salary of the judge of the city court of Griffin to $2,000. To pay the treasurer of Ware county $300 per year in lieu of fees after January 1, 1917.

Support for Soft Drink Tax
The bill to tax soft drinks in Georgia, that is, all syrups, extracts or syrups used in soft drinks, whether wholesale or retail—is going to have the active support on the floor of the house of Representative Henry J. Fulbright. Mr. Fulbright is chairman of the appropriations committee, and one of the strongest individual members in the house will call for action on this bill.
